

I am strongly opposed to weakening the Indiana No-Call legislation. I'm a business owner as well as a citizen, and I feel strongly that the federal "existing business relationship" is nothing more than a way to avoid the legislation. I believe if I need to further or strengthen my relationship with an existing business, I should initiate that transaction. Please don't allow businesses to call me to solicit!

Regards,
James Cota